May it please your Majesty,

THE great Honour done us, by Your Majesty's Most Gracious Letter, and Your Royal Goodnets, in condescending to take Notice of the Zeal of former Assemblies, for the Advancement of true Religion and Piety, the Prosperity of this Church, and the Good of our Country, is most encouraging to us; and cannot but animate us, warmly to pursue those Measures, which may most effectually contribute to the attaining the desirable Ends of our Meeting, which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to countenance with Your Royal Approbation and Authority.

It gives us the most sensible Joy, that Your Ma-jesty has been pleased to express Your Satisfaction with our Loyalty and Affection for Your Royal Perfon and Family, which we may, with great Confidence, affure Your Majetty, possesses the Hearts of all the Members of this Church; and we entirely depend upon the Royal Affurances You are pleased to give us, of Your constant Resolution to support and maintain the Church of Scotland, established by Law in the full Fairwages of all its just Rights and Law, in the full Enjoyment of all its just Rights and Privilegs: And we humbly hope, by Your Royal Goodness, ito obtain in due Time, Redress of the Grievance, which has been represented to Your Majesty by former Assemblies.

The Confidence Your Majesty has express'd, of our coming together with these good Dispositions and Intentions, cannot but oblige us, to employ our best Endeavours, to bring about the great and good Purposes for which we are now assembled, by conducing all in our Power to the Peace and Welfare of this Church, the Increase of Piety and Virtue, the preventing the Growth of Popery, and the suppressing of Profaneness and Immorality; and for our happy Success therein, next to the Divine Affistance, we rely upon Your Majesty's Countenance and Encouragement: And as the Success of our Councils and Deliberations, must, under God, also greatly depend upon the Wildom, Moderation and Charity, whereby they are conducted, so we are obliged to own, that we should not act agreeably to the Spirit of our Holy Religion, and the Character we bear, if we paid not the highest Regard to Your Majesty's earnest and pious Recommendations, to avoid all Disputes and Contentions among ourfelves, and to proceed upon the Bufiness proper for our Consideration, with that Unanimity and Brotherly Love, which may so justly be expected from us, and which also, we are so gracioufly affured, cannot fail to recommend us further to Your Royal Favour.

The Experience we have had of the Capacities and Abilities of the Most Honourable the Marquis of Lothian, of his Zeal and Loyalty for Your Majesty's Service, of his Affection and Concern for the Church of Scotland, and of his Qualifications for the Difcharge of fo great a Truft, renders Your Majefty's Choice of him, to represent Your Royal Person in this Affembly, most acceptable to us : And we hope, we shall conduct ourselves, in the Dispatch of the Business before us, in such Manner, as may render the Duties of his high Station easy to him.

Your Majesty's High Commissioner has deliver'd to us Your Royal Warrant, for the Renewal of Your charitable Donation, towards the Reformation of the Highlands and Islands, for the twelfth Year, which we most thankfully receive and acknowledge, who in April last suspended him from the Exercise of as a fresh Instance of Your Majesty's tender Concern for the spiritual as well as temporal Interest of Your Subjects, in these more remote and less civilized Parts of Your British Dominions: And as his Royal Bounty has produced very good Effects among them, and has ferved as an afeful Mean to counteract the Popish Emissaries trafficking in those Parts, it shall be our Care to employ the same in exact Conformity to Your Royal Intentions, that the Fruits of it may more and more appear to Your Majesty's Sa-

That Your Majesty's precious Life, which is so great a Blessing to all Your People, and the whole Protestant Interest, may be long preserved. That the best of Heaven's Blessings may be plentifully pour'd out upon Your Royal Person, and her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highneties the Prince and Prince's of Wales, and all the rest of Your Royal Family: And that after the Crewn has long flourished upon Your Head, You may at length, thro Jesus Chrift, inherit immortal Glory, are and shall be the earnest Prayers of,

May it please Your Majesty. Tour Majesty's most faithful, most chedient, and most loyal Subjects, The Ministers and Elders met in the National Affembly of the Church of Scotland. Sign'd in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by NIEL CAMPBELL, Moderator,
